Rector's Ramblings

Last Saturday six of vestry joined with six members of the vestry of Christ the King to meet with the Bishop Daniel to discuss ministry in McLean County.

Over the three hours the bishop talked about the long term Diocesan vision of being One Church made up of Geographic Parishes organized for mission in Eucharistic Communities with the goal of being concretely incarnate in the 60 counties of our Diocese. A truly lofty and worthy goal, but one with many unanswered and even unexpressed questions.

The primary question is not "why", but "how"? This is followed by "what?" The bishop did not address these, but has left it to the vestries to determine. The only direction Bishop Daniel has explicitly given is for the vestries to appoint a team of 3 individuals from St. Matthew's and 2 from Christ the King under my guidance to begin discussions on a possible joint ministry in our community. This is not a merger of congregations, or vestries, or money, or buildings, but seeking a way to develop a cooperative ministry in this County.

So, if you wish to be on the committee, please see a vestry member, if not, please do hold us in prayer as we seek to move forward.

Finally, I think the question that we should all be asking is not even related to logistics and organization, but truly involves mission, and that is "would our community miss us if we (St. Matthew's, Christ the King, The Episcopal Church) disappeared tomorrow?"

Pray that as we discern together we will find a mutual ministry that should it ever end would be sorely missed.

Readings & Music for September 20, 2015

Hymns: #232, #328, #618, and as printed in the bulletin

Jeremiah 11:18-20

It was the LORD who made it known to me, and I knew;
then you showed me their evil deeds.

But I was like a gentle lamb
led to the slaughter.
And I did not know it was against me
that they devised schemes, saying,
"Let us destroy the tree with its fruit,
let us cut him off from the land of the living,
so that his name will no longer be remembered!"
But you, O LORD of hosts, who judge righteously,
who try the heart and the mind,
let me see your retribution upon them,
for to you I have committed my cause.

Psalm 54 Page 659, BCP    Deus, in nomine

1 Save me, O God, by your Name; *

    in your might, defend my cause.

2 Hear my prayer, O God; *

    give ear to the words of my mouth.

3 For the arrogant have risen up against me,

    and the ruthless have sought my life, *

    those who have no regard for God.

4 Behold, God is my helper; *

    it is the Lord who sustains my life.

5 Render evil to those who spy on me; *

    in your faithfulness, destroy them.

6 I will offer you a freewill sacrifice *

    and praise your Name, O LORD, for it is good.

7 For you have rescued me from every trouble, *

    and my eye has seen the ruin of my foes.

James 3:13-4:10

Who is wise and understanding among you? Show by your good life that your works are done with gentleness born of wisdom. But if you have bitter envy and selfish ambition in your hearts, do not be boastful and false to the truth. Such wisdom does not come down from above, but is earthly, unspiritual, devilish. For where there is envy and selfish ambition, there will also be disorder and wickedness of every kind. But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, willing to yield, full of mercy and good fruits, without a trace of partiality or hypocrisy. And a harvest of righteousness is sown in peace for those who make peace.

Those conflicts and disputes among you, where do they come from? Do they not come from your cravings that are at war within you? You want something and do not have it; so you commit murder. And you covet something and cannot obtain it; so you engage in disputes and conflicts. You do not have, because you do not ask. You ask and do not receive, because you ask wrongly, in order to spend what you get on your pleasures. Adulterers! Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Therefore whoever wishes to be a friend of the world becomes an enemy of God. Or do you suppose that it is for nothing that the scripture says, 'God yearns jealously for the spirit that he has made to dwell in us'? But he gives all the more grace;

therefore it says,
'God opposes the proud,
but gives grace to the humble.'

Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded. Lament and mourn and weep. Let your laughter be turned into mourning and your joy into dejection. Humble yourselves before the Lord, and he will exalt you.

Mark 9:30-37

Jesus and his disciples went on from there and passed through Galilee. He did not want anyone to know it; for he was teaching his disciples, saying to them, "The Son of Man is to be betrayed into human hands, and they will kill him, and three days after being killed, he will rise again." But they did not understand what he was saying and were afraid to ask him.

Then they came to Capernaum; and when he was in the house he asked them, "What were you arguing about on the way?" But they were silent, for on the way they had argued with one another who was the greatest. He sat down, called the twelve, and said to them, "Whoever wants to be first must be last of all and servant of all." Then he took a little child and put it among them; and taking it in his arms, he said to them, "Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me."

Grant us, Lord, not to be anxious about earthly things, but to love things heavenly; and even now, while we are placed among things that are passing away, to hold fast to those that shall endure; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.
